

AMERICAN HOTEL AND STAGE HOUSE, CONSTANTINE.

HARRY HUNT, who respectfully informs the public that he is fitting up the above establishment in style and convenience, to none in Western Michigan. The dimensions of his house are sixty feet on Water street, and forty feet on Washington street, comprising a Dining Room, forty feet long and a Ball Room of the same length, which are being finished in the handsomest possible style; together with a large number of single rooms. The Dining and Ball rooms will be ready for the celebration of the Fourth of July.

His table will be always furnished with the best provisions the market will afford.

He feels confident that all who may favor him with a call will find themselves perfectly at home, if good accommodations and strict attention will accomplish it.

The Stage leaves every other day for White Pigeon and Kalamazoo.
